BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

- (4) An administrative hearing officer:
- (a) shall:
 - (i) act in a quasi-judicial manner; and
 - (ii) serve as the final arbiter of issues involving the interpretation or application of land use ordinances; and
 - (b) may not entertain an appeal of a matter in which the administrative hearing officer, or any participating member, had first acted as the land use authority. (Ord. 2005-20, 7/5/05)

4-8-3. Appeals.

- (1) (a) An applicant or any other person or entity adversely affected by a decision administering or interpreting a zoning ordinance may appeal that decision applying the zoning ordinance by alleging that there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an official in the administration or interpretation of the zoning ordinance.
- (b) Appeals to the administrative hearing officer shall be made in writing and shall be filed with the county department of engineering within 30 days of the decision administering or interpreting a zoning ordinance.
- (2) The person or entity making the appeal has the burden of proving that an error has been made.

4-8-4. Variances.

- (1) Any person or entity desiring a waiver or modification of the requirements of the zoning ordinance as applied to a parcel of property that he owns, leases, or in which he holds some other beneficial interest may apply to the administrative hearing officer for a variance from the terms of the zoning ordinance.
- (2) (a) The administrative hearing officer may grant a variance only if:
- (i) literal enforcement of the zoning ordinance would cause an unreasonable hardship for the applicant that is not necessary to carry out the general purpose of the zoning ordinance;
 - (ii) there are special circumstances attached to the property that do not generally apply to other properties in the same district;

- (iii) granting the variance is essential to the enjoyment of a substantial property right possessed by other property in the same district;
- (iv) the variance will not substantially affect the general plan and will not be contrary to the public interest; and
- (v) the spirit of the zoning ordinance is observed and substantial justice done.

- (b) (i) In determining whether or not enforcement of the zoning ordinance would cause unreasonable hardship under Subsection (2)(a), the administrative hearing officer may not find an unreasonable hardship unless the alleged hardship:

- 1) is located on or associated with the property for which the variance is sought; and
- 2) comes from circumstances peculiar to the property, not from conditions that are general to the neighborhood.

- (ii) In determining whether or not enforcement of the zoning ordinance would cause unreasonable hardship under subsection (2)(a), the administrative hearing officer may not find an unreasonable hardship if the hardship is self-imposed or economic.

- (c) In determining whether or not there are special circumstances attached to the property under Subsection (2)(a), the administrative hearing officer may find that special circumstances exist only if the special circumstances:

- (i) relate to the hardship complained of; and
- (ii) deprive the property of privileges granted to other properties in the same district.

- (3) The applicant shall bear the burden of proving that all of the conditions justifying a variance have been met.

- (4) Variances run with the land.

- (5) The administrative hearing officer may not grant use variances.

- (6) In granting a variance, the administrative hearing officer may impose additional requirements on the applicant that will:

- (b) serve the purpose of the standard or requirement that is waived or modified. (Ord. 2005-20, 7/5/05)

BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

4-8-5. District court review of administrative hearing officer decision.

(1) Any person adversely affected by any decision of an administrative hearing officer may petition the district court for a review of the decision.

(2) In the petition, the plaintiff may only allege that the administrative hearing officer's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or illegal.

(3) The petition is barred unless it is filed within 30 days after the administrative hearing officer's decision is final. As a condition precedent to judicial review, each adversely affected person shall timely and specifically challenge a land use authority's decision, in accordance with this title.

(4) The administrative hearing officer shall transmit to the reviewing court the record of its proceedings including its minutes, findings, orders and, if available, a true and correct transcript of its proceedings. If the proceeding was tape recorded, a transcript of that tape recording is a true and correct transcript for purposes of this subsection.

(5) If there is a record, the district court's review is limited to the record provided by the administrative hearing officer. The court may not accept or consider any evidence outside the administrative hearing officer's record unless that evidence was offered to the administrative hearing officer and the court determines that it was improperly excluded by the administrative hearing officer.

(6) If there is no record, the court may call witnesses and take evidence.

(7) The court shall affirm the decision of the administrative hearing officer if the decision is supported by substantial evidence in the record.

(8) The filing of a petition does not stay the decision of the administrative hearing officer. Before filing the petition, the aggrieved party may petition the administrative hearing officer to stay its decision. Upon receipt of a petition to stay, the administrative hearing officer may order its decision stayed pending district court review if the administrative hearing officer finds it to be in the best interest of the county. After the petition is filed, the petitioner may seek an injunction staying the administrative hearing officer's decision. (Ord. 2005-20, 7/5/05)

This prohibition shall include contact with plaintiffs who have filed suit against Tooele County, claimants who have served a Notice of Claim on Tooele County, and defendants in actions filed by Tooele County, such as those in violation of provisions of the Tooele County Code or the Tooele County Land Use Ordinance.

(2) Appeal authorities shall be restricted from ex parte contact, including site or office visits, electronic communication, written communication, and verbal conversation either face-to-face or over the telephone, with any individual or representative of a company or entity when such interaction involves a request for hearings, variances, appeals of administrative decisions, or special exceptions. This restriction on ex parte contact applies to all variances, appeals of administrative decisions, or special exceptions after an application for such is filed with the Tooele County Engineering Department, while the application is under review by the administrative hearing officer or while the application is under appeal, if an appeal is filed. Appeal authorities shall not participate in ex parte contact with individuals or representatives of a company or entity opposed to a request for a hearing, variance, appeal of administrative decision, or special exception.

(3) If ex parte contact as described in Subsections (1) or (2) occurs, it shall be disclosed by the administrative hearing officer who had such contact and who shall then neither participate in the discussion nor render a decision on the matter.

(4) Receipt of written information regarding an active request for a hearing, variance, appeal of administrative decision, or special exception shall be permitted, provided such written information is disclosed by the administrative hearing officer and submitted as a part of the record.
